

Otters Club wins in style

By A Sports Reporter

OTTERS Club had more than one reason to celebrate.

They not only won the men's team championship but also bagged the team championship for women in the Otters Open Swimming Championships yesterday.

played tremendous form in the pool winning event after event in the two-day tourney. But the event was enjoyed more by six-year-old Kalyani Basu of Khar Gymkhana. The Standard I student of Jambhai Narsee swam to four gold medals in as many events.

Parikshit Shetty of Otters Club won the double crown as he emerged as Individual Champion in the boys' under-15 and men's category. Bhavna Sharma of BPCL too treated herself with the girls' under-13 and women's title.
